Talk about their feelings – Ciamar a tha thu a’ faireachdainn an-diugh? How are you feeling today? Tha mi fuar/I am cold Tha mi toilichte/I am happy Tha mi sgìth/I am tired Tha an t-eagal orm/I am afraid Tha mi brònach/I am sad Tha mi crosta?/I am angry Tha mi tinn/I am sick https://youtu.be/RN_uzTdbPg0 Carson a tha thu a’ faireachdainn....? Why are you feeling....? Listen to the Story about a sick bear https://youtu.be/MT9vbIN5GKM	Make a chart for the week and encourage your child to draw their faces to show how they are feeling each day Count out how many times they have felt different emotions, throughout the week. https://youtu.be/RN_uzTdbPg0	https://bumps2bairns.com/2020/05/01/sock-puppet-friends Make Sock puppet friends Why not make a sock puppet friend at the same time as your child? The puppets can chat to each other about how they are feeling, remember to use the words in the literacy column. Maybe they can play and go on adventures together! Your child can now use the materials you have gathered to make a nose, eyes, ears, hair and any other features your child wants to add. A marker pen can also be used.	Video chat with grandparents, family, friends – anyone your child might be missing and they could sing this song to them. 😊 Oran: https://soundcloud.com/storlann/p-06-the-sinn-uile-toilichte-a Faclan Tha sinn uile toilichte, toilichte, toilichte, Tha sinn uile toilichte a’ bualadh air an druma.
