

Change Makers Programme

'Change is never easy, but how we approach it makes a significant difference to whether it is embraced or rejected' (Andrea Belk Olson)

Develop how you approach leading change that builds better improvement and outcomes for your learners, colleagues and community.

This programme is for education leaders in all sectors (e.g. PT, DHT, HT, and managers/senior leaders in ELC and CLD etc) who want to lead improvement that creates more effective collaboration with a shared purpose by exploring:

- How systems thinking will help you lead
- What system leadership looks like in action
- How to create your collaborative team
- How to create a culture of readiness for change and improvement for learners
- How to engage in shared values, plans and actions for improvement
- How to implement and measure improvement and outcomes
